

United States District Court
Eastern District of California

12 Norman Timothy Gregory,

13 Plaintiff, No. Civ. S-04-2523 DFL PAN P

14 vs.

15 T. Ayers, et al.,

Order Directing Service by the United States Marshal Without Prepayment of Costs

16 Defendants.

17 -oOo-

18 Plaintiff is proceeding in forma pauperis pursuant to 28
19 U.S.C. § 1915. The court previously ordered plaintiff to provide 20 information for service of process on form USM-285, sufficient
21 copies of the complaint for service, and a notice of compliance.
22 Plaintiff has filed the required papers.

23 1. The Clerk of the Court is directed to forward the 24 instructions for service of process, the completed summons, and 25 copies of the complaint and of this order to the United States
26 Marshal;

1       2. Within ten days the United States Marshal shall notify 2 defendants Ayers, Kelsch, Ramerez, Renter, Glensor, Coombs,
3 Runnels, Phillips, Clayton, Gentry, Knowles, Grannis and Shepherd
4 of the commencement of this action and request waiver of service
5 of summons in accordance with the provisions of Fed. R. Civ. P.
6 4(d).

7       3. The United States Marshal shall retain the original
8 summons and a copy of the complaint in his file.

9       4. The United States Marshal shall file written waivers of 10 service of summons and any requests for waiver of service that 11 are returned undelivered as soon as they are received.

12       5. If a requested waiver of service of summons is not 13 returned by a defendant within 60 days from the day the request
14 was mailed, the United States Marshal shall:

15           a. Serve process and a copy of this order upon the 16 defendant pursuant to Rule 4 of the Federal Rules of Civil 17 Procedure and 28 U.S.C. § 566(c) and shall command all necessary
18 assistance from the California Department of Corrections to 19 execute this order. The United States Marshal shall maintain the 20 privacy of all information provided in confidence by the 21 Department pursuant to this order.

22           b. Within ten days after service is made, file the return 23 of service for the defendant with evidence of any attempts to 24 secure a waiver of service of summons and of the costs
25 subsequently incurred in effecting service on said defendant.
26 Said costs shall be itemized on form USM-285 and shall include

1 costs incurred by the Marshal for photocopying the summons and 2 complaint and preparing any new forms USM-285. Costs of service
3 will be taxed against the defendant in accordance with Fed. R.
4 Civ. P. 4(d) (2).

5 6. Defendants shall reply to the complaint within the time
6 provided by Fed. R. Civ. P. 12(a).

7 7. Unless otherwise ordered, all motions to dismiss,
8 motions for summary judgment, motions concerning discovery, 9 motions pursuant to Rules 7, 11, 12, 15, 41, 55, 56, 59 and 60 of 10 the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, and motions pursuant to 11 Local Rule 11-110 shall be briefed pursuant to Local Rule 12 78-230(m). Failure timely to oppose a motion may be deemed 13 consent to the relief requested in the motion. Opposition to all 14 other motions need be filed only as specifically directed by the 15 court.

16 8. If plaintiff is released from prison during the pendency
17 of this action, any party may request application of other 18 provisions of Local Rule 78-230 but Local Rule 78-230(m) shall 19 apply until such a request is made and granted. See Local Rule
20 1-102(d).

21 9. Pursuant to Wyatt v. Terhune, 315 F.3d 1108, 1119-20 &
22 n. 14 (9th Cir. 2003), plaintiff is advised of the following 23 requirements for opposing a motion to dismiss for failure to 24 exhaust administrative remedies made by a defendant. Such a 25 motion is a request for dismissal of unexhausted claims without 26 prejudice. The defendant may submit evidence including

1 declarations under penalty of perjury and duly authenticated
2 documents to support the request. If plaintiff contends he did
3 exhaust administrative remedies available to him, plaintiff may 4 oppose defendant's motion and submit evidence, including his own 5 or others' competent declarations under penalty of perjury and 6 duly authenticated documents. If plaintiff does not serve and 7 file a written opposition to the motion, the court may consider 8 the failure as plaintiff's consent that the motion should be 9 granted. If the defendant's motion to dismiss is granted 10 plaintiff's unexhausted claims will be dismissed without 11 prejudice.

12 10. Pursuant to Rand v. Rowland, 154 F.3d 952, 957 (9th 13 Cir. 1998) (en banc), cert. denied, 527 U.S. 1035 (1999), and 14 Klingele v. Eikenberry, 849 F.2d 409 (9th Cir. 1988), plaintiff
15 is advised of the following requirements for opposing a motion 16 for summary judgment made by a defendant pursuant to Rule 56 of 17 the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure. Such a motion is a request 18 for an order for judgment in favor of the defendant without 19 trial. A defendant's motion for summary judgment will set forth 20 the facts affecting plaintiff's right to relief under the 21 applicable law that defendant contends are not reasonably subject
22 to dispute. To oppose a motion for summary judgment, plaintiff
23 must present evidence in support of his claims. To do this, 24 plaintiff may call the court's attention to statements within 25 plaintiff's knowledge made under the penalty of perjury in the 26 complaint, or submit his own or others' competent declarations

1 under penalty of perjury, duly authenticated documents, the 2 transcript of a deposition, answers to interrogatories, or 3 admissions obtained in this proceeding. If there is some good 4 reason why such evidence is not available to plaintiff when 5 required to oppose a motion for summary judgment, the court will 6 consider a request to postpone considering the defendant's 7 motion.

8 11. Unsigned affidavits or declarations will be stricken.

9 12. Each party shall promptly advise the court if they 10 change their address by serving and filing a document entitled 11 "Notice of Change of Address." Failure to inform the court of a 12 change of address may result in the imposition of sanctions
13 including dismissal of the action.

14 13. The Clerk of the Court shall serve upon plaintiff a 15 copy of the Local Rules of Court.

16 14. The failure of any party to comply with this order, the 17 Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, or the Local Rules of Court may 18 result in the imposition of sanctions including, but not limited
19 to, dismissal of the action or entry of default. Fed. R. Civ. P.
20 11; Local Rule 11-110.

21 So ordered.

22 Dated: May 10, 2005.
